

The Franklin City Commission convened in special called session at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, March 30, 2009, in the conference room at City Hall, 117 W. Cedar Street, Franklin, Kentucky. In the chair presiding was the Honorable Mayor Jim Brown, with the following City Commissioners present: Jamie Powell, Wendell Stewart, Henry Stone, and Herbert Williams. Also present were City Manager Hal Toomey, Finance Director Cendy Dodd, Police Chief Todd Holder, Street Department Supervisor & Cemetery Sexton Derick Minnicks, Public Works Director Clif Beecher, Water Treatment Plant Superintendent Jerry Farmer, Water Distribution Supervisor Jason Simmons, and Waste Water Treatment Plant Superintendent Dave Butt,

Mayor Brown called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m. and Commission Jamie Powell offered an opening prayer.

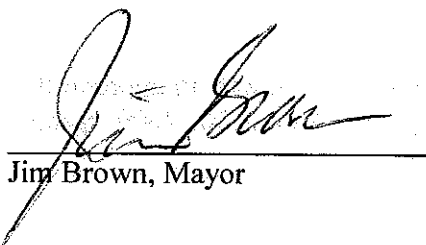

At this time the winners of the Biggest Loser competition were recognized. In an effort to encourage fitness and healthy eating habits among City employees, a friendly competition has been going on since January, 2009 and ended today. The employees who signed up weighed at the first of the year and then again today and for each percentage the employees lost, the City is contributing one hour personal time. The winner was City Hall employee Stacie Goostree and runner up was Police officer Steve Assman. Congratulations to everyone for their hard work.

- BUDGET WORKSHOP

The only purpose of the special called meeting being to conduct a budget workshop for the 2009-2010 budget, presentations were heard from the various City departments regarding their anticipated needs during Fiscal year 2009-2010. During discussions, the Commission requested Street Department Supervisor Derick Minnicks to prepare for the next meeting a bid list of streets to be paved.
