HEAR THE PUBLIC

Larry Freas addressed the commission regarding health insurance coverage provided by the City for Mr. Freas. Mr. Freas indicated his health insurance coverage has been unsatisfactory since a change took place in the insurance carrier. Mr. Freas also stated he is currently without coverage and requests consideration of reimbursement for insurance copays he has paid out of pocket for prescription copays. City Manager, Kenton Powell, requested Personnel Director, Rita Vaughn, to update the commission on the situation. Ms. Vaughn indicated Mr. Freas still has insurance coverage provided by city as a supplement policy to Medicare with prescription coverage. Ms. Vaughn also indicated there has been no lapse in insurance coverage and the City has provided Mr. Freas with a prescription plan. Ms. Vaughn further indicated that Mr. Freas was required to go on Medicare when he turned 65 last year. Mr. Freas feels he is due better coverage. Mayor Ronnie Clark stated the commission would look into the situation and would contact Mr. Freas regarding the situation at a later date.
